

Jenna Brock

Executive Assistant

"There is always room to grow!"

Jenna Brock serves as the Executive Assistant to President & COO of Persium Group, Stephen Griner. In this role, Jenna coordinates travel arrangements, schedules client interactions, and assists others in the office with any needs that arise.

Prior to joining Persium, Jenna developed her leadership and organizational skills in the food service industry, handling a multitude of tasks efficiently and proactively to ensure an amazing experience for guests. She also developed and implemented social media campaigns for a local small business, strengthening their brand and increasing market share.

Jenna is a full-time student at Georgia State University and set to graduate in 2023 with a degree in Psychology. She has lived in Atlanta for the past four years and loves the hustle and bustle of the city. In her free time, Jenna enjoys long walks with friends, trips to the beach, reading books, trying new restaurants, and hanging out with her six brothers who reside in Roswell, GA.
